

1969

Books Received

Follow this and additional works at: <https://dsc.duq.edu/dlr>

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Books Received, 7 Duq. L. Rev. 510 (1969).

Available at: <https://dsc.duq.edu/dlr/vol7/iss3/12>

This Books Received is brought to you for free and open access by Duquesne Scholarship Collection. It has been accepted for inclusion in Duquesne Law Review by an authorized editor of Duquesne Scholarship Collection.

Books Received

ADMIRALTY LAW OF THE SUPREME COURT. 2nd edition. By Herbert R. Baer. Charlottesville: Michie Co., 1969. Pp. xiv, 653. $25.00. A discussion of the Supreme Court decisions regarding admiralty law with emphasis on the rationale of both majority and dissenting opinions in order to enable the admiralty practitioner to recognize where he may advise with some degree of assurance, and where, because of the nature of the disagreement among the Justices and departure from accepted admiralty principles, he should conservatively regard a decision as to the law of the moment.

AUTHORITY IN THE MODERN STATE. By Harold Joseph Lasky. Hamden, Conn.: Archon Books, 1968. Pp. x, 398. $12.00. The objective of the book is to insist that the problem of sovereignty is only a special case of the problem of authority, and to suggest a main path of approach to its solution.

THE BASIC VALUES IN LAW: A STUDY OF THE ETHICO-LEGAL IMPLICATIONS OF PSYCHOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY. By Thomas E. Davitt. Philadelphia: American Philosophical Society, 1968. Pp. 144. $4.00. A discussion of the values which are in law necessarily, and which give law its distinctive contours by furnishing it with its over-all goals.

CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE AND MORAL LAW IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY AMERICAN PHILOSOPHY. By Edward H. Madden. Seattle: University of Washington Press, 1968. Pp. 214. $7.50. An analysis of nineteenth-century American philosophy in regard to the conflict between intuitionistic and utilitarian interpretations of what constitutes moral law, and in regard to the conflict between different attitudes to reform in general and abolitionism in particular.

CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE: THEORY AND PRACTICE. By Hugo Adam Bedau. New York: Pegasus, 1969. Pp. 282. $7.50. A collection of writings designed to illustrate the actual course of debate in recent years and to provoke intelligent discussion of the aims, achievements, methods, and legitimacy of acts of civil disobedience. Particular emphasis is placed on the acts and campaigns of civil disobedience in America in civil rights and peace movements during the past decade.

Books Received

CIVIL RIGHTS AND THE AMERICAN NEGRO: A DOCUMENTED HISTORY. Edited by Albert P. Blaustein and Robert L. Zangrundo. New York: Washington Square Press, 1968. Pp. xv, 671. $1.45. A study with the purpose to describe the changing status of the Negro in America from earliest colonial days to the present in order to review current problems against a historical backdrop.

DISOBEDIENCE AND DEMOCRACY: NINE FALLACIES ON LAW AND ORDER. By Howard Zinn. New York: Vintage Books, 1968. Pp. 124. $1.45. The author presents a cogent, well-reasoned defense of civil disobedience or protest beyond the law, as a means of rectifying evils that are often shielded by the law in our society.

DOING BUSINESS IN OTHER STATES. By Alan B. Todd. New York: United States Corporation Co., 1968. Pp. viii, 334. $—. A collection of cases and statutes to assist the corporate practitioner in attaining a quick, capsule view of the latest decisions in the 50 states concerning the legal consequences a corporation faces when its activities take it out of the state of its creation.

DOUBLE JEOPARDY AND THE FEDERAL SYSTEM. By Leonard G. Miller. Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1968. Pp. 152. $9.75. An examination of the Supreme Court's principal pronouncements on the character and constitutional status of successive state and federal prosecutions emanating from overlapping criminal statutes.

ECONOMICS OF DISSENT. By Ben B. Seligman. Chicago: Quadrangle Books, 1968. Pp. xv, 429. $10.00. An analysis of the interrelationship between economics and the human animal as a political, social and economic being.

THE ELECTRONIC INVASION. By Robert M. Brown. New York: John M. Rider, 1967. Pp. viii, 184. $3.95. A study of a multitude of related subjects that can only be classified as elements of modern electronic snooping such as the spy receiver, speech scrambles, bumper beepers, etc.

FREEDOM AND COMMUNITY. By Yves Simon. New York: Fordham University Press, 1968. Pp. viii, 201. $5.50. A series of lectures devoted to the philosophical basis for authority and freedom.

HOSPITALIZATION AND DISCHARGE OF THE MENTALLY ILL. By Ronald S. Rock. Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1968. Pp. xiv, 268. $10.00. A complete study of the changing law and practice of the hospitalization and discharge of the mentally ill.

ISSUES IN URBAN ECONOMICS. By Harvey S. Perloff and Lowdon Wingo, Jr. Baltimore: Johns Hopkins Press, 1968. Pp. x, 668. $5.00. A collection of twelve papers devoted to the problems of urban economics with an analysis of the results so far attained and the challenges which lie ahead.

THE JURISPRUDENCE OF JOHN MARSHALL. Edited by Robert K. Faulkner. Princeton, N.J.: Princeton University Press, 1968. Pp. xxi, 307. $—. A study of the "constitutional understanding" of John Marshall, Chief Justice of the United States, as a contribution to the overall understanding of American law, history, and political thought.

THE LAND SYSTEM OF THE UNITED STATES: AN INTRODUCTION TO THE HISTORY AND PRACTICE OF LAND USE AND LAND TENURE. By Marion Clawson. Lincoln, Nebraska: University of Nebraska Press, 1968. Pp. 145. $3.75. An introduction to the land use system in the United States.

THE LAST LANDSCAPE. By William H. Whyte. Garden City, N.J.: Doubleday Co., 1968. Pp. 376. $—. An analysis of the structure of metropolitan areas with emphasis on the many options available to the planner for more effective use and development of urban land such as open-space planning and cluster development.

THE LAW AND PRACTICE OF COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION. By Martin Domke. Chicago: Callaghan & Co., 1968. Pp. xiii, 469. $18.00. A comprehensive examination of the legal issues and their resolutions by the courts, contractual arrangements for arbitration, their operation, and the day-to-day work of agencies administering commercial arbitration.

LAW AND SOCIETY: A SOCIOLOGICAL VIEW. By Edwin M. Schur. New York: Random House, 1968. Pp. x, 239. $6.95. A study of the interrelationships between law and society.

LAW REFRESHER: CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE. 4th edition. Edited by William E. Burby. St. Paul: West Publishing Co., 1968. Pp.

Books Received

xxviii, 280. $4.50. An up-to-date review of recent decisions of the Supreme Court relating to law enforcement and other developments in the field of criminal law.

MENTAL IMPAIRMENT AND LEGAL INCOMPETENCY. By Richard C. Allen. Englewood Cliffs, N.J.: Prentice-Hall, 1968. Pp. xxiv, 401. $29.95. A critical look at the procedures by which the states administer their protective concern for mentally incompetent citizens, such as problems of incompetency and guardianship, and problems concerning the effect of mental illness or defect on the capacity the perform various legal functions as the execution of contracts, deeds, wills, prosecuting or defending a lawsuit, operating a motor vehicle; testifying as a witness, etc.

THE NEGLIGENT DOCTOR: MEDICAL MALPRACTICE IN AND OUT OF HOSPITALS AND WHAT CAN BE DONE ABOUT IT. By Charles Kramer. New York: Crown Publishers, 1968. Pp. 255. $5.95. A presentation of medical malpractice cases in order to alert the victims of medical malpractice and to remind the medical profession that it has pledged itself to exert care, wisdom, and professionalism to those who have entrusted their health and very lives to its abilities.

THE NEW URBANIZATION. By Scott Greer. New York: St. Martin's Press, 1968. Pp xii, 384. $10.00 A study concerned with the organizational transformation of the total society that results in cities and a given rate and degree of urban concentration; the internal differentiation of urban subareas in large-scale societies, and the mechanism of integration; the generalization of policies within the contemporary American metropolis; the processes of innovation in cities still largely governed through the political vocabulary of an earlier society.

NON-PROLIFERATION TREATY: FRAMEWORK FOR NUCLEAR ARMS CONTROL. By Mason Willrich. Charlottesville, Va.: Michie Co., 1969. Pp. xii, 341. $7.50. An in-depth analysis of the problem of nuclear weapons proliferation and the legal framework created for dealing with that problem.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR REGIONAL RESEARCH ON WATER RESOURCES PROBLEMS. Edited by Dean T. Massey & Gordon D. Rose. Iowa City, Iowa: University of Iowa, College of Law, 1968. Pp. x. 142. $_____.

A report on the feasibility of regional researches on water resources, together with a base for improvement and submission of a foundation for a long-term program of regional research on water resources.

PRODUCT SAFETY IN HOUSEHOLD GOODS. Edited by F. Read Dickerson. Indianapolis: Bobbs-Merrill, 1968. Pp. x, 190. $7.50. A position paper by the mission of the Seminar in Legislation for the President's Committee on Product Safety. The objectives of the paper were to discover and define the areas within which household products carry unreasonable hazards of physical harm and to develop criteria for determining whether or not such a product or group of products is sufficiently hazardous to warrant legislation or other government intervention.

REVENUE SHARING AND THE CITY: By Walter W. Heller. Baltimore: Johns Hopkins Press, 1968. Pp. x, 112. $2.50. Proposals that the federal government use some sort of revenue sharing device to provide general financial aid to state and local governments, specifically, tax sharing in the form of general-assistance grants on a per capita basis in order to encourage improvement in the quality and level of state-local services and to stimulate the exercise of state-local initiative and responsibility as part of the national interest in revitalizing state and local governments.

THE ROAD TO RUNNYMEDE: MAGNA CARTA AND CONSTITUTIONALISM IN AMERICA. By A. E. Howard. Charlottesville, Va.: University of Virginia Press, 1968. Pp. xv, 533. $10.00. An examination of the influence the Magna Carta has had on the constitutional development in Britain and the United States.

THE RULE OF LAW AND THE ROLE OF PSYCHIATRY. By Justine W. Polier. Baltimore: Johns Hopkins Press, 1968. Pp. xii, 176. $7.95. An analysis of the interrelationships between law and psychiatry in schools, hospitals, agencies, the courts, and many other institutions.

THE SOCIOLOGY OF LAW: INTERDISCIPLINARY READINGS. By Rita James Simon. San Francisco: Chandler Publishing Co., 1968. Pp. xii, 688. $8.95. A collection of essays by legal scholars and social scientists gathered in order to present an overview of the many trends in the sociology of law in the United States during the past half century.